What went well?
A lot of tasks got done, and we were able to finish a lot of modules

What went bad?
We started attempting to integrate s3 too late and it cause too much affect on modules existing.

What We can improve on.
I think in the future, we can improve what we define on core components. S3 should have been something we integrated early on.